RECONNECT

Newly Arrived Youth Support Service

(NAYSS)

Supporting Communities

What is Reconnect NAYSS?

- We support young people aged 12 to 21 and their families who have been in Australia less than 5 years where the young person is homeless or at risk of homelessness.
- We support young people to strengthen their relationships with family, education, employment and community.

What Reconnect NAYSS does:

Counselling

Mediation

Group work

Practical support

Advocacy

Referral

Reconnect NAYSS aims to:

- Provide a culturally sensitive service which respects the cultural values, identities and experiences of newly arrived young people and their families.
- Be understanding that settling in a new country can be stressful for young people and their families and that this stress can impact on family relationships.
- Support young people and their families to explore their strengths and abilities to develop solutions and achieve their own goals.
